Mission Spotlight:

Please pray for Mission Partner Reset180. This organization strives to disrupt and prevent human trafficking in Northern Virginia. They also provide loving Christian care for victims as they help them recover from severe trauma. One young woman in particular, a minor when she was trafficked, is in need of intense prayer as Reset180 helps her rebuild her life and discover Christ's love.

Prayers of thanksgiving for the continuing Bags of Love program. Many in our community remain in need from the impact of COVID and job loss. Many in this congregation have generously provided time, talent, and treasure to continue to care for our brothers and sisters in need. Thank you, Lord.

This Week at the 9:00 AM Service:

Childcare on the 2nd floor. Also, after the first 2 songs in worship, Pre-K to rising 6th graders will be invited to go to the Bridges and Doorways classes; pick-up will be on the 3rd floor after worship.

Join Us for Breakfast Outdoors TODAY:

VPC will provide a continental breakfast between the worship services at 10:10 a.m. in the parking lot. All food will be purchased and individually served, and there will be covered seating and lawn games. These breakfasts bring all ages of our church family together in community as we spend this season celebrating our 150th anniversary and looking forward to welcoming our new Lead Pastor, Hope Lee, on October 10!

Groups are Ramping up for Fall:

We hope you'll consider developing spiritual friends to encourage you in faith. This week, our men's and women's groups are beginning new Bible study series, Pastor Connie is launching a new midweek learning community, and the Sunday PM group for teens and Youth Choir kick-off on September 19. You can find this information in our e-newsletter and at viennapres.org.

PM—Youth Group Gathering this Sunday Night:

Join us from 5:30pm-7:30pm for a time of hanging out, praise, looking into God's word, and small group time. We'll start our time together in the parking lot and move inside to the Sanctuary later.
